Let's get Naked! Summer's almost here and we're ready to say farewell to Winter and welcome our 2014 summer issue of Newport Naked. Our publication is free and aims to strip down the Newport scene each season. In Newport area, articles we think are water cooler or barstool worthy and fun do-it-yourself projects that we know you'll enjoy.

All of our contributors have a Newport connection whether they've grown up here, relocated here or spent summers in Newport, wishing they could be "year-rounders". They all have a love for many years of Newport, RI, regardless of the time of year. Being a "local", it's easy to tire of the same old scene, so sometimes, we'll take a trip over the bridge and head to the big cities - which really, are right around the corner. However, many of you know that the Newport scene heats up in the summer, so we'll of course include information on what's hot - here and now.

We'll help you get out of your comfort zone and introduce you to the adventures we've painstakingly tested, tried out and in all cases, thoroughly enjoyed. You'll be surprised at what we've found!

You'll also find some well-guarded secrets to finding bar-gains around town...good eats, where to cocktail and where to shop. If you feel like keeping it real at home, try out some of the local recipes we've collected and create your own party! Newport Naked is here to help you do just that!

Please visit us at www.newportnaked.com to learn more. We'd love your feedback! Feel free to send us submissions of your own for future issues of Newport Naked. Just try to keep your clothes on.
